UP CM holds mega Road Show in Mandya

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha and Higher Education Minister Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan receiving the UP Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath at Mysore Airport in Mandakalli this morning. Picture right shows the UP CM's road show in Mandya this noon.

Mandya, Apr. 26 (Mohan Raj& BCT)- The sugar bowl of Mandya turned saffron this morning as Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath began his first election campaign here in Karnataka this morning.

This is for the first time Yogi Adityanath is visiting Mandya district considered a stronghold of JD(S). In an effort to woo Vokkaliga votes that dominate Mandya district, the BJP has prioritised Mandya in its plans.

The UP CM arrived at Mysore Airport in Mandakalli at around 11.55 am and was received by MP Pratap Simha, Minister Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan, Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa and other BJP Leaders. Soon, he boarded a chopper to Mandya and landed at the PET Helipad and travelled in a car till the Sanjay Circle. Later, he began a road show from Sanjay Circle in an open vehicle draped with flags and painted saffron. People lined up on the road showered flower petals on the vehicle.

The road show concluded at Mahaveer Circle and Yogi headed to the Silver Jubilee Park where he addressed a public rally and sought votes for BJP candidates who are contesting from Mandya, Maddur, Malavalli, Nagamangala, Srirangapatna and other areas.

Priyanka Gandhi savours Idli-Dosa at a Hotel in Agrahara

Tries her hand in making crisp dosa

AICC General Secretary Priyanka Gandhi and KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar having breakfast at Mylary Hotel in Agrahara here this morning.

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (RK,MTY& BS)- The City of Palaces Mysuru that has been the go-to destination of many, is also known for dishing out unique delicacies and Masala Dosa is one among them, the taste of which nobody can resist, including the first timer in AICC General Secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra.

Priyanka, who stayed overnight at Radisson Blu Plaza Hotel on M.G. Road in the city, after her packed campaign tour and road show at Mysuru and Chamarajanagar districts yesterday, visited nearby Mylary Hotel in Agrahara for breakfast at about 9.30 am today, where she spent one hour.

After learning from KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar about the hotel known for its distinct style of making Dosa laced with ghee and served with a dollop of butter, Priyanka visited the tiny restaurant, and savoured a plate of Dosa and Idli.

Priyanka, who was enamoured by the taste of Dosa, also tried her hand on making it, in the kitchen of the hotel, by pouring the batter and spreading it on the hot griddle. The Congress leader's surprise visit caught owner of the hotel Lokesh, his wife Shruti and daughter Parvati offguard, who were extremely happy to treat the VVIP guest who has 'Z' plus security cover of CRPF commandos.

Vocal concert at Mysore Vasudevacharya's house

Mysuru, Apr. 26- Famed vocalist Vidu. Mangalam Shankar will be presenting a vocal concert at Sri Mysore Vasudevacharya's house in city on Saturday (Apr. 29). She will be accompanied by Vid. Arunachal Kartic on violin and Vid. R.S.R. Srikanth on mridanga. The concert, scheduled to start at 10.30 am, is open to the public.

Vidu. Mangalam Shankar

Vidu. Mangalam Shankar, daughter-in-law of Veena exponent Kalaimamaṇi Kalpagam Swaminathan, is a vocalist of great repute. Endowed with a voice of unusual power, emotions and timbre, she stands tall as the torch-bearer of the famed T.M. Thyagarajan (TMT) tradition. She began learning Karnatak music from her mother Valadi Janaki Annadhanam at a very early age and came under the direct tutelage of Sangita Kalanidhi T.M. Tyagarajan in 1974.

She also received training under Padma Vibhushan D.K. Pattammal and Sangita Kalanidhi D.K. Jayaraman. She has a degree from Tamiḻ Naḍu Government Music College, Chennai, with Gold Medals both in Vocal and Musicology. An A-Grade artiste of All India Radio and Doordarshan, Vidu. Mangalam Shankar has been performing concerts under the auspices of major organisations, sabhas for over four decades worldwide. She has composed many kṛithis and songs for dance dramas, arangetrams & musical projects.

She has also contributed to the propagation of Karnatak music by conducting workshops across the globe. She has performed thematic concerts like exclusive Trinity compositions, Saint Purandaradasa's compositions. She has many Music albums and Publications, including "Geetha Ganamrudham", a selection of krithis composed by Maharaja Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, to her credit.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Parenting can be challenging. With time restrictions and playgrounds reduced, playtime is becoming precious and rare. Gizmos and gadgets, or trips to mall on weekends have replaced the physical playtime. In Barbara Johnson's words, "To be in your children's memories tomorrow, you have to be in their lives today." Children need a little of your time to feel the warmth of your presence which no other person or material can ever replace. A small tiff between friends flares up into a big ugly fight and strangely many a times parents get involved. The problem arises because the child's independence is totally curbed. They are not allowed to handle the situation and find a solution for themselves. Children, who will tread this Earth as adults tomorrow need to face challenges at their own level and by themselves. Like the carrot and stick, little independence and encouragement with support boost their confidence in finding what's right and wrong early in life. It will also teach them to make mistakes and correct them. It lays a strong foundation for sound decision-making in future. Another quote reads, "To raise a child who is comfortable enough to leave you, means you have done your job. They are not ours to keep, but to teach how to soar on their own." In Robert A. Heinlan's words, "Don't handicap your children by making their lives easy." Let them experience this beautiful journey called 'life' in their own way.

1,227 play 'Dungeons and Dragons'

Utah: More than 1,000 role-playing enthusiasts gathered at a Utah mall and broke the Guinness World Record for the largest Dungeons & Dragons game ever played.

Andrew Ashby, lead organizer and head Dungeon Master for the game at Provo Towne Centre, said there were a total 1,227 players, far exceeding the goal of 500 set by Guinness World Records.

Ashby, whose family owns the We Geek Together game store at the mall, guided the game, which included 200 tables of up to seven players, each with its own Dungeon Master following Ashby's instructions. The game, based on the Dead Wars campaign of Dungeons & Dragons, saw each table represent an area of the battlefield as the players sought to defeat the villainous Vecna. The event was officially certified by a Guinness World Records adjudicator as a new record for the most people playing Dungeons & Dragons.

A world record here in Provo — it's the nerdiest world record ever, Ashby said.

Wienermobile transforms into wedding chapel

Las Vegas: Meat manufacturer Oscar Meyer announced its recognizable Wienermobile is being transformed into a Las Vegas chapel for two days of weddings. The hot dog-shaped vehicle will be parked outside the Little White Wedding Chapel in Las Vegas on April 15 and 16 for the "Wienermobile of Love" event. Couples who sign up for a time slot on OscarMayer.com will be treated to an all-expenses-paid wedding ceremony outside the Wienermobile and led by Oscar Meyer employees, known as "Hotdoggers." Each ceremony will feature performances by a wiener whistle quartet and serve up a "wonderfully odd wiener cake," said in a news release. Spokesman Ed Roland said Oscar Meyer receives thousands of requests each year for the Wienermobile to make stops at weddings.

Karnataka Digital Public Library project

Mysuru stands fourth in State with 17,25,417 subscribers

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (MK&BCT)- The success of the Government-run digital library initiative — Karnataka Sarvajanika Granthalaya: Karnataka Digital Public Library — launched on Feb.26, 2020, weeks before the nationwide COVID-19 lockdown was imposed has come as a surprise even to the authorities.

Currently, in Karnataka, 3,38,25,206 individuals have subscribed to the digital library, of which 1,21,70,940 are from Bengaluru Urban, securing first place. Haveri, with 22,28,442 subscribers, stands second, followed by Mangaluru with 21,44,694 subscribers, Mysuru with 17,25,417 subscribers stands fourth followed by Gadag district with 16,89,458 subscribers and Kalaburagi with 16,69,874 subscribers.

The Karnataka digital library today is one of the largest consulted libraries in the world on a daily basis, as recorded by the World Book of Records, London.

The project, a first in the country, started on a small scale to reach out to readers during the lockdown and has now transformed into a sought-after platform due to its vast and diverse content. Anyone with access to a computer, tablet, or smartphone can avail the library membership free of cost and start reading content not just in Kannada but also in English and other Indian languages.

In the first phase, 272 libraries across the State were converted into digital libraries, followed by another 100 in second phase. The project has integrated close to 1.73 crore e-content.

In Mysuru, the project began in just two libraries and now covers 35 libraries across the district, including taluk and village libraries, Deputy Director of the Department of Libraries B. Manjunath told Star of Mysore. Readers can download the E-Library App from Google Play Store or log on to www.karnatakadigitalpubliclibrary.org to avail the services of digital library.

The libraries have been upgraded with computers and laptops and the content has been hosted on the cloud. The content, in the form of e-books, journals and videos, is available in Kannada, English, Tamil, Telugu and many other languages. Many authors have voluntarily donated their books to be used in digital format and the new version of the library has helped many of them prepare to crack competitive exams.

The Department has collaborated with stakeholders such as CBSE, NCERT, Universities and All India Radio archives and offers access to content, including video tutorials, simulated laboratory experiments, journals and periodicals, audio clippings, YouTube links and lectures by resource persons.

VOICE OF THE READER

Chaos on Nrupatunga Road in Kuvempunagar

Sir,

Chaos reigns on Nrupatunga Road in Kuvempunagar. The stretch of road from Karnataka Housing Board (KHB) commercial complex junction and extending till Kuvempunagar bus depot, is lined with shops on both sides. It is very busy in the evenings with hectic shopping activities and vehicular movement.

Besides being full of big, dangerous potholes and craters, the road lacks pavements. The full stretch and small stretches of pavements, wherever present is encroached upon by the shop owners or used as parking lots.

This forces the pedestrians to hit the road. The parking areas are not marked for two and four-wheelers, resulting in haphazard and mindless parking of vehicles. The utter disregard in following traffic rules is causing a lot of inconvenience and annoyance to the public. The city administration and the Traffic Police seem to have turned a blind eye in this regard.

I request the authorities concerned to take note and initiate suitable action at the earliest.

Poll expenses for candidates capped at Rs. 40 lakh: DC

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (BS)- Deputy Commissioner and District Electoral Officer Dr. K.V. Rajendra has said that 'There is a provision for every candidate contesting the election to spend up to Rs. 40 lakh and they should maintain the account of their expenditure.'

Addressing a training workshop for representatives of various political parties organised at Senate Bhavan in Manasagangothri here yesterday, he said that "Expenditure Observers will verify the expenditure for three times. Nine Expenditure Observers have been deputed for 11 Assembly Constituencies in the district. General Observers and Police Observers are also deployed in the district."

Before filing nomination, the candidates should have opened account in a nationalised bank. The payments above Rs.10,000 should be done either through cheque, Google Pay linked to the same account. The expenses from the date of filing nomination till the results will be calculated. If the candidates fail to submit the details related to expenditure within 30 days of conclusion of election, such candidates will be ineligible to contest any election for three years, warned DC Dr. Rajendra.

Either the candidate or political party, the donation should be accepted through bank account. No individual can be paid above Rs.10,000 in cash, during the complete poll process, said DC.

If candidates want to spend the amount from their own account, they should transfer the amount to the account opened for the purpose of election, clarified the DC.

All the Expenditure Observers will be available at Kabini Guest House in Administrative Training Institute (ATI) on Lalitha Mahal Road. The information related to poll expenses are available in English and efforts will be made to provide the information in Kannada too. The Form-7A (publication of list of candidates) is in final stages and the candidates in the fray will be allotted serial numbers, added Dr. Rajendra.

Expenditure Observers, Additional Deputy Commissioner Kavitha Rajaram and representatives of various political parties were present at the training workshop.

World Immunisation Week from Apr. 24 to 30

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (SSM)- World Immunisation Week is observed every year on the last week of April month (Apr. 24 to 30). It aims to promote the use of vaccines to protect people of all ages against diseases. Immunisation saves millions of lives every year. The theme for this year is 'Long Life for All.'

When it comes to equality in getting vaccinated, women are left behind. Women who fail to be vaccinated, especially pregnant women will suffer from various diseases which will in turn affect infants' health in the womb. Also during pregnancy, women's immunity will be low.

During the World Immunisation Week, children will be administered with vaccines for 12 dangerous diseases. Parents must make sure that their children are vaccinated in time, according to a press release from the District Health and Family Welfare Officer.

Operation Kaveri in strife-torn Sudan

India evacuates 534 nationals via Jeddah

INS Sumedha with 278 people onboard departs Port Sudan for Jeddah.

New Delhi, Apr. 26 (UNI)- India safely evacuated 534 Indian nationals from strife-torn Sudan to Jeddah, via Indian naval ships and IAF aircraft, with more sorties to follow as part of Operation Kaveri.

While the first batch of 278 Indians left for Jeddah — where a transit facility has been set up for onward journey to India — yesterday evening on board INS Sumedha, two other batches, of 121 and 135 Indians, were flown to Jeddah on board two IAF C-130J aircraft later in the night.

The evacuation comes a day after the MEA announced that India had launched an operation to bring back around 3,000 Indians stranded in Sudan. External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar had said that around 500 citizens have already reached Port Sudan.

Minister of State for External Affairs V. Muraleedharan has been stationed in Jeddah where a control room has been set up to oversee the safe evacuation of Indian nationals from Sudan.

More sorties will follow to evacuate the over 3,000 Indians who were in Sudan when the fighting broke out between the army and the paramilitary.

"Our ships and aircraft are set to bring them back home. We are committed to assisting all our brethren in Sudan," External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar had tweeted. The MEA had said in a statement that India has also positioned two IAF C-130J on standby in Jeddah.

Another ship, C-130J arrived in Port Sudan shortly after INS Sumedha departed Port Sudan with 278 Indians onboard, INS Teg joined Operation Kaveri and arrived at the port with additional officials and essential relief supplies for stranded Indians, the statement added.

India has launched full-scale operations to evacuate its nationals taking advantage of the three-day ceasefire that the two warring factions in Sudan announced yesterday. The leaders of the Sudanese Armed Forces and the rival Rapid Support Forces (RSF) have agreed to halt the fighting.

The ceasefire is meant to "establish humanitarian corridors, allowing citizens and residents to access essential resources, health care and safe zones, while also evacuating diplomatic missions," the RSF said.

Five meet watery grave at Visvesvaraya Canal in Mandya

Bodies fished out

Mandya, Apr. 26- Five persons including a 10-year-old girl were drowned while playing in the water at Visvesvaraya Canal in Doddakothagere village in the taluk yesterday afternoon.

The deceased have been identified as Anish Begum (34), her daughters Mehtab (10), Tasmia (23), Atika Begum (22) and son Aswaq Ahmed (28), all residents of Neelasandra in Bengaluru.

On the occasion of Ramzan festival, more than 15 persons of a family from Bengaluru had come to the house of one Ghouse Pasha at Halagere village in the taluk and yesterday at about 2 pm, they left in two cars and came to Visvesvaraya Canal at Doddakothagere village and ventured into the water.

When Mehtab got stuck in the whirlpool, her mother Anish Begum, Tasmia, Atika and Aswaq Ahmed tried to rescue her but got caught in the whirlpool and were drowned.

Fire and Emergency Services personnel, who arrived at the spot, fished out the bodies from the water. Mandya Dy.SP Omprakash, Basaralu Sub-Inspector Sheshadrikumar and Keregodu Sub-Inspector Raghu visited the spot.

A case has been registered at Basaralu Police Station.

Modi's 4.1-km road show in city on Apr. 30

Dasara-like barricades being installed on Raja Marga to control crowd

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (RK&BCT)- Prime Minister Narendra Modi will hold a road show in Mysuru on Apr. 30 at 5.30 pm from the Gun House Circle till the LIC Circle in Bannimantap. The road show will be held for over an hour and Dasara-like barricades are being installed on Raja Marga to control the crowd.

The tentative programme of the Prime Minister says that Modi is scheduled to address a public meeting at Chandan Khera Cross in Humnabad taluk, Bidar on Apr. 29 at 10 am and after his other couple of engagements, his chopper will land at Oval Grounds on Apr. 30 at around 5 pm.

A temporary helipad will be set up at the Oval Grounds and the Special Protection Group team has already inspected the location and has cleared the landing. This helipad has been chosen due to its close proximity to the Gun House Circle.

After arrival, the PM's cavalcade will travel from Oval Grounds to the Gun House Circle from where the 4.1-kilometre road show will begin. Barricades are being put up on both sides of the road — from Gun House Circle, Basaveshwara Circle, K.R. Circle, Government Ayurveda College Circle, Old RMC Yard, Moulana Abul Kalam Azad Circle — till the LIC Circle and the security will be tight to prevent public entry onto the roads.

There will be traffic restrictions and diversions once the official tour programme of the PM is released. From the LIC Circle, the PM's convoy will move towards the Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway and the PM will proceed on the next leg of his tour.

Prime Minister to virtually interact with 50 lakh BJP workers tomorrow

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Modi will hold a live virtual interaction with 50 lakh BJP workers from Karnataka tomorrow (Apr. 27) at 9.30 am, said Union Minister Shobha Karandlaje. In each of 58,112 booths, televisions will be put to telecast the interaction, she said, adding that 24 lakh party workers have downloaded the NaMo app through which one can interact with the Prime Minister.

Narendra Modi

The PM will reply to individual queries by party workers at 15 places in the State, she said, and noted that about 24 lakh party workers had downloaded the "Modi app" for participating in the interaction. There will be seating arrangements for a thousand people in each district-level booth. Since candidates are unable to reach houses of voters, party workers have been asked to visit their houses at least twice or thrice, and inform them about the development works undertaken by the double-engine government, she said.

The party is expecting that this will build a tempo for the Prime Minister's multiple visits scheduled later to address the poll conventions.

Prediction on next CM: Mandya dog joins fray

Picks H.D. Kumaraswamy among photos of Basavaraj Bommai, D.K. Shivakumar

Mandya, Apr. 26 (Mohan Raj&BCT)- Many astrologers have shot to fame claiming to predict the political fortunes of leaders in the past. This fame comes even as rationalists claim that astrology is being used to defraud gullible people by pushing them into blind superstition.

Karnataka has always been a hotbed for political activity and this time is no different. Astrologers have made their predictions and now a dog has joined the fray. With the voting is just a few days away, the question on everyone's mind is who will emerge victorious and become the next Chief Minister.

Amidst the speculation, an unlikely source has made a prediction — a dog in Mandya. The prediction says that H.D. Kumaraswamy will become the CM.

The dog, Bhairava, is owned by Gopi of Ashoknagar in Mandya and is said to have a track record of accurate predictions for the past two years. Bhairava was given the photos of Basavaraj Bommai, H.D. Kumaraswamy and D.K. Shivakumar.

The dog picked up Kumaraswamy's photo and reportedly declared him as the future Chief Minister of Karnataka.

Interestingly, Gopi is an ardent devotee of Kalabhairava and every Monday, he goes to the Temple to perform pujas with his family. He has even named his pet Bhairava after the Lord. According to Gopi, his dog has extraordinary powers and days before actor Puneeth Rajkumar died, Bhairava used to hold Puneeth's photo in its mouth, indicating something unfortunate would happen.

"A few days back, my mother was admitted to a hospital and the doctors had told us not to have any hopes. But Bhairava went to my mother and licked her face twice. After this, her health improved by 65 percent," Gopi said.

We all know about Paul, the octopus that became a global sensation with his accurate match predictions during the 2010 FIFA World Cup. Kept at an aquatic life centre in Germany, Paul was presented with two food boxes — marked with two team flags — and the one he ate from was considered his prediction for the game. Paul made four accurate predictions, out of six and all were for games involving Germany.

While it remains to be seen whether Bhairava's prediction will come true like Paul, it has certainly added an interesting twist to the election campaign.

Priyanka Gandhi must first look at Robert Vadra before targeting BJP

New Delhi BJP Vice-President Rajiv Babbar says most of the top Congress leaders are out on bail now

New Delhi BJP Vice-President Rajiv Babbar addressing a press meet in city this morning as Narasimharaja Constituency BJP candidate S. Satish (Sandesh Swamy), BJP leaders B.P. Manjunath and Jaya Prakash (JP) look on.

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (MTY&BCT)- New Delhi BJP Vice-President Rajiv Babbar has charged that leaders of Congress have no moral right to speak about the BJP's governance at a time when the top Congress leaders are out on bail on corruption and money laundering charges.

Addressing reporters at BJP Media Centre in city this morning, Babbar countered Congress General Secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra's allegation that the Basavaraj Bommai Government in Karnataka was corrupt and had looted the State exchequer.

"Let me remind Priyanka of her husband Vadra who has grabbed hundreds of acres of land from farmers and poor in Haryana. Vadra was helped by many business tycoons at the behest of Gandhi family when the Congress was in power in Haryana and at the Centre. Robert Vadra is on bail now and his wife Priyanka must look at her own house first before making any allegations against BJP," he charged.

Even in Karnataka, a Lokayukta complaint had been lodged against Opposition leader Siddharamaiah and Congress leader Sonia Gandhi's 'Damaad' (son-in-law Robert Vadra) in connection with illegally taking over of Rs. 9,600 crore worth 1,100 acres of land in and around Bengaluru, he said.

"Most of the leaders of Congress including KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar, Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi are on bail in various corruption, defamation, embezzlement and money laundering cases. They have no moral right to question the BJP," he said.

Rajiv Babbar said that the BJP will win 135 seats in Karnataka with a clear majority as several policies launched by the double-engine governments of Narendra Modi and Basavaraj Bommai have reached the villages and lower strata of the society.

"Fear of defeat is haunting Siddharamaiah in Varuna and Shivakumar in Kanakapura," the BJP leader claimed.

Former BJP National Council member B.P. Manjunath, Narasimharaja BJP candidate S. Satish (Sandesh Swamy) and others were present.

UP CM in Mandya

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, who came in a special flight from Lucknow this morning, landed at Mysore Airport in Mandakalli at about 11.55 am. From there he flew in a chopper to Mandya where he held a road show.

As soon as the UP CM waved at the crowd, he was presented an idol of Kala Bhairava which he accepted bowing before the idol. Yogi Adityanath began his speech in Kannada and said, "Bharat Mata Ki Jai" "Aadi Chunchanagarige Nanna Namaskaragalu". Hearing this, the crowd erupted in joy.

Yogi Adityanath has been given a big task by the BJP high command to boost the electoral prospects of the party in the Old Mysuru region. This region is vital for the BJP to gain absolute majority, but till now, the party has not made inroads into the region.

In his address, the UP CM hit out at Congress. "Congress talks about development but the reality was that the 5-year schemes which they used to announce were becoming a reality only after the scheme's term ended and soon after it would collapse. When PM Modi keeps the foundation of a scheme, he also inaugurates it," he said

"Congress appeases PFI and gives religion-based reservation, which is against the Constitution. BJP's 'double engine' government banned PFI and broke its backbone. There were no riots or curfew in Uttar Pradesh in the last six years," he added.

He attacked Congress and said several projects in Karnataka were not completed. "There was no leadership in Karnataka before the BJP came to power. Karnataka was developed under BJP," he added.

Mandya MP Sumalatha Ambarish, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, Minister Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan and others were present on the stage. After his Mandya rally, the UP CM was scheduled to fly back to Mysuru in a chopper and take the special plane to Hubballi.

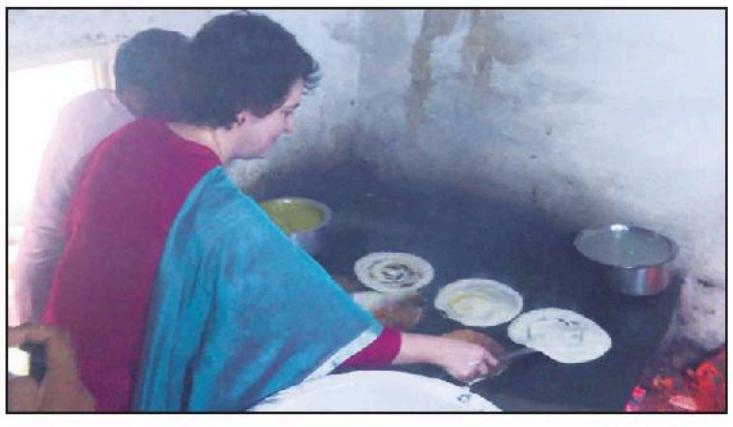
Priyanka, who had a chat with Shruti, also recalled her daughter's culinary skills that had even fetched a prize for her in a school level cooking competition. She also promised to bring along her daughter to the hotel, during her next visit to Mysuru city.

Priyanka Gandhi obliged for selfie pictures not disappointing those who didn't want to miss the rare opportunity of dining with a VVIP dignitary.

Even though there were other customers at the hotel, the business went on as usual without any hindrance.

As Priyanka's visit to hotel was unplanned, K.R. Police acted swift and made security arrangements.



Congress workers, who had also gathered outside the hotel, raised slogans hailing Priyanka, as she came out of the premises.

Overjoyed by Priyanka's visit, Shruti also recalled the visits of Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, Minister R. Ashok and several other dignitaries in the past.

"Bommai became the Chief Minister a fortnight after visiting our hotel," said beaming Shruti.

AICC General Secretary and Karnataka In-charge Randeep Singh Surjewala, KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar, AICC Spokesperson Aishwarya Mahadev and former MLA M.K. Somashekar, who is contesting as Congress candidate in Krishnaraja Assembly Constituency, also had breakfast with Priyanka Gandhi at the hotel.

Amit Shah to woo Kodagu voters at Madikeri on Apr. 29

Amit Shah

Madikeri, Apr. 26 (PS&BCT)- With days remaining for Assembly elections in Karnataka, campaigning has heated the poll scene in the State. Kodagu will witness intense activity as Home Minister Amit Shah will visit Madikeri on Apr. 29.

Shah is expected to hold rallies and speak at public meetings, seeking votes for Madikeri BJP candidate M.P. Appachu Ranjan and Virajpet candidate K.G. Bopaiah. The Union Minister has already expressed confidence that the party will win with an absolute majority and retain power in Karnataka. He said that the BJP will win 15-20 seats over the halfway mark (112) in Karnataka.

As part of his Kodagu programme, Amit Shah will address a public rally on Apr. 29 at 10.30 am at the Gandhi Maidan.

Addressing a press conference in Madikeri yesterday, BJP Kodagu in-Charge Pratap Simha Nayak, who is also an MLC, said that the BJP is poised to retain power in Karnataka as the 'double engine' Government has initiated various development programmes.

"History will repeat in Kodagu district as BJP will sweep its rivals with huge margins in Virajpet and Madikeri K.G. Bopaiah and Appachu Ranjan will emerge victorious with a huge margin," he said.

"People of Kodagu will move away from caste politics and they will come out of communalism. It is the BJP that has banned anti-national organisations like the PFI and has made the country secure and at the same time initiated several development activities," he added.

"The coming elections are about handing over the future of the State to Prime Minister Narendra Modi. People should vote for a new Karnataka. This is an election for honest politics and development. If Congress comes to power, it will put the State in reverse gear," Pratap Simha Nayak said.

Cong. will win 150 seats, BJP just 40: DKS

KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar addressing media persons at Radisson Blu Plaza Hotel in city this morning as AICC General Secretary and Karnataka in-Charge Randeep Singh Surjewala looks on.

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (MTY&BS)- Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) President D.K. Shivakumar has vouched to write in blood that 'BJP will be restricted to 40 seats in the coming election to Assembly on May 10 and Congress will win 150 seats.'

Addressing media persons at Radisson Blu Plaza Hotel on M.G. Road here this morning, Shivakumar predicted dismal show of BJP in the elections for earning the wrath of the people for being mired in controversy, with the charge of '40 percent Commission Government.'

By cornering Lingayat leaders like former Chief Minister Jagadish Shettar and former Deputy Chief Minister Laxman Savadi (both defected to Congress recently from BJP), the party has also cheated the particular community, alleged Shivakumar.

Referring to the latest developments related to hike in quota of reservation for Lingayats and Vokkaligas and scrapping of reservation for Muslims under 2B, Shivakumar said: 'The BJP Government in the State has backstabbed people, who were looking at reaping benefits with a profound hope. Is there any intention to drive minorities out of the country by revoking reservation? asked Shivakumar.

During election season, BJP took the risk of keeping its hands in honeycomb, by revising the quota of reservation, which is unscientific and also illegal. On one hand, it is a well-planned strategy to frame the reservation and express helplessness later in the name of legal hurdles to implement the reservation. It is aimed at getting votes by uttering lies, said Shivakumar.

With all these misdoings, BJP is set to lose the elections and one can witness the 'funeral procession' of the party on May 13 (the date of results of Assembly elections), said Shivakumar.

AICC General Secretary and Karnataka in-Charge Randeep Singh Surjewala, who also spoke, raised the series of scams including that of PSI recruitment, that were reported during the present regime of BJP Government in the State, looting several crores of rupees in the State.

Former Punjab CM Parkash Singh Badal dies at 95

Parkash Singh Badal

Mohali, Apr. 26- Parkash Singh Badal, a five-time former Chief Minister of Punjab and Akali Dal patriarch, died at a private hospital in Mohali yesterday. He was 95.

The former Chief Minister was admitted to Fortis Hospital in Mohali a week ago after he complained of uneasiness while breathing. The Punjab leader died at around 8 pm, Hospital Director Abhijeet Singh said.

The leader's mortal remains will be brought to Akali Dal Office in Sector 28 today and his last rites will be held tomorrow at his ancestral village, Badal, in Muktsar district.

Parkash Singh Badal was born in Punjab's Abul Khurana close to the Rajasthan border and studied at Lahore's Forman Christian College.

The veteran leader climbed his way up the political ladder, serving as a Village Sarpanch, before he contested Assembly elections for the first time in 1957, when he was 30 years old, as a Congressman.

Parkash Singh Badal was the youngest Chief Minister at 43 to ever hold office in the State of Punjab.

In a career spanning over seven decades, he lost only two elections — one in 1967 and the latest in the 2022 Punjab Assembly election.

His party broke off ties with the BJP over the farmers' agitation against the Centre new agricultural laws in 2020. Parkash Singh Badal returned his Padma Vibhushan award — the second highest civilian honour of the country that he received from the Government in 2015 — in protest against the treatment of the protesting farmers by the Central Government.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi tweeted, "Extremely saddened by the passing away of Shri Parkash Singh Badal Ji. He was a colossal figure of Indian politics, and a remarkable statesman who contributed greatly to our nation. He worked tirelessly for the progress of Punjab and anchored the state through critical times."

Poll campaigning intensifies

MP Pratap Simha seeks votes for KR BJP candidate Srivatsa

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (CN&TRR)- MP Pratap Simha participated in a door-to-door campaign seeking votes for Krishnaraja (KR) BJP candidate T.S. Srivatsa yesterday.

Accompanied by a large number of party workers, Pratap Simha went door-to-door in Ittigegud coming under Ward Number 52 and Jayanagar in Ward Number 65 and sought votes for Srivatsa.

Later, while addressing a public meeting at Chamundipuram Circle, the MP said that unlike other political parties, they have not come here to fool people by giving false assurances. "We are asking your vote on the basis of development works done by BJP Government," Simha said.

"Recognising his organisational work when he was the BJP Yuva Morcha President, BJP rewarded S.A. Ramdas with a party ticket in 1994. Since then for almost 30 years, Ramdas worked for the development of KR Constituency. Now, the party has recognised Srivatsa's party work for three decades and has named him as the party candidate from KR. Party workers have the responsibility of ensuring his victory," added Pratap Simha.

"By asking Somanna to contest from Varuna Constituency against former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, the party has made the former Chief Minister to spend more time in Varuna and thereby restricting his campaigning elsewhere. It is better if the former Chief Minister concentrates more on Varuna instead of campaigning for others," suggested the MP.

"Without doing any development work, Siddharamaiah always gives casual and evasive answers. Today, if Siddharamaiah leaves his Bengaluru residence and reaches his Siddaramanahundi village residence in 90 minutes, it is only because of BJP Government's development works. The Congress will be defeated in the coming elections and BJP will again form the Government in the State," the MP concluded.

Dr. Yathindra Siddharamaiah goes canvassing for father

Appeals voters to oust BJP

Mysuru, Apr. 26 (MTY&TRR)- "The State BJP Government has indulged in a series of corrupt practices. The people of the State are facing hardships because of the rising prices of essential commodities. My father, Siddharamaiah, as the Chief Minister, has done a lot of good works for the poor people of Karnataka. So, elect my father with a big margin in the coming Assembly election and support the Congress party," appealed Varuna MLA Dr. Yathindra Siddharamaiah to the voters of Varuna Constituency.

Dr. Yathindra, who was on a door-to door campaign at Goddanapura, Maraluru, Yechagalli, Hallididdi, Tandavapura, Banchallihundi, Chikkaiahnachatra, Adakanahallihundi and Hebbya villages of Varuna Constituency on Monday, sought votes for his father, the Congress candidate for Varuna.

Dr. Yathindra launched a frontal attack on BJP and said the State government has indulged in corruption from day one. By committing irregularities in appointments, it has ignored the meritorious aspirants, he alleged.

"This is the last election of Siddharamaiah and we all have to give him a good farewell by electing him with a big margin," appealed Dr. Yathindra.

Veerashaiva leader Y.K. Madappa, Siddharamaiah's Personal Secretary M. Ramaiah, former Zilla Panchayat (ZP) Members Nanjappa, Revamma, B.M. Ramu, KPCC Secretary Gurupadaswamy, leaders Gowdike N. Madappa, Dakshinamurty, Krishnakumar Sagar, former Taluk Panchayat (TP) President Manjula Manjunath and others were present during the campaigning.

Sandesh Swamy seeks votes from traders and merchants

NR BJP candidate Sandesh Swamy visited various markets in the Constituency on Tuesday and sought votes from traders and merchants. He undertook padayatra in N.R. Mohalla, Kesare, Kurimandi and Veeranagere, met traders and also listened to their grievances. He appealed them to support the BJP this time to bring a change in the Constituency and give him power to solve their problems.

M.K. Somashekar of Congress and Kaveesh Gowda of BJP hit streets

JD(S) will get full majority in State: H.D. Deve Gowda

JD(S) Supremo H.D. Deve Gowda lifts the hand of Periyapatna MLA and candidate K. Mahadev, seeking people's support during the public meeting organised in the town yesterday. Picture right shows KR Nagar JD(S) MLA S.R. Mahesh addressing a public meeting as H.D. Deve Gowda and other leaders look on.

Mysuru, Apr.26 (BS)- Former Prime Minister and Janata Dal (Secular) Supremo H.D. Deve Gowda has exuded confidence that the party will return to power in the State in the coming days.

Addressing a huge convention of party workers at Periyapatna town in the district yesterday, Deve Gowda said, "H. D. Kumaraswamy, who had served as the Chief Minister of the State for two terms, has implemented several programmes for the benefit of farmers. To make Kumaraswamy CM again, sitting MLA K. Mahadev should be re-elected to the Assembly."

Congress party which made Kumaraswamy the Chief Minister after the last elections (in 2018) later ditched him in the middle. Hence, it is sure that JD(S) will form the Government with absolute majority. If our Government ascends the seat of power, all the projects announced in the manifesto will be implemented and will chalk out plans so that the farmers, women, labourers and working class will lead a peaceful life, asserted Deve Gowda.

"MLA K. Mahadev has developed Periyapatna and the people themselves shared the information about his works. The people of the Constituency should vote for Mahadev without any confusion and ensure his victory, and the taluk will witness development further. Mahadev is a good worker and will be given a suitable position in the party," assured the ex-PM.

Mahadev said that "Even in his old age Deve Gowda has been striving hard day and night, to bring JD(S) to power in the State. Hence, I should win with a huge margin this time, to strengthen the hands of former CM Kumaraswamy."

P.M. Prasanna, President of Mysore Milk Union Limited (Mymul) also spoke on the occasion.

JD(S) Periyapatna Taluk President Annaiah Shetty, Govindegowda, former Taluk Panchayat Member Ailapura Ramu, Periyapatna Town Municipal Council President K. Mahesh, former Zilla Panchayat Member K.S. Manjunath, Chandru, Mymul Director Rajendrappa, JD(S) leader Gagan, President of Taluk Agriculture Produce Cooperative Marketing Society (TAPCMS) Ltd., Nagendra, Director of District Bank Ravi and others were present on the occasion.

S.R. Mahesh must win

JD(S) Supremo H.D. Deve Gowdam who also campaigned for K.R. Nagar JD(S) MLA S.R. Mahesh at Mirle village, appealed to the people to join hands to elevate Chief Minister H. D. Kumaraswamy led Government to power in the State.

Deve Gowda also claimed that it was he who introduced reservation for STs, Muslims and women in local bodies, which shouldn't be forgotten.

MLA S.R. Mahesh, former ZP Member Achuthananda, Netravati, Shobha, Annegowda, Mohan, Dhananjaya, Tukaram, Radhakrishna, Arvind, Madhu, Prasanna, A.T. Gopal, Thimmappa, Rangaswamy, Lokanath and others were present during the rally seeking votes for S.R. Mahesh.

WORD OF THE DAY

Hackles

Pronunciation: HAK-ulz.
Meaning: Hackles are hairs along the neck and back of an animal (especially a dog) that are capable of being raised to a stiff, upright position (as when a dog is frightened or angry). The plural noun hackles is often used figuratively with raise or rise to describe a person's response to something that causes anger or annoyance; thus, hackles can also mean "temper" or "dander" (as in "don't get your temper/dander up").
Origin: In its earliest uses in the 15th century, hackle referred to either the plumage along a bird's neck or to a device used to comb out long fibres of flax, hemp, or jute. Things took a turn in the 19th century when English speakers extended the word's plural use to both dogs and people. Like the bird's feathers, the hairs on the back of a dog's neck stand up when the animal is agitated. With humans, use of the word hackles is usually figurative. So, if you heckle someone, you'll likely raise their hackles in the process, meaning you'll make them angry or put them on the defensive.
Example: "If you want to raise someone's hackles, tell them how to spend, donate, or invest their money. Sure, we all want guidance, but few of us are open to obeying a total stranger."

PHRASE OF THE DAY

High five

Meaning: The phrase 'High five' is used to describe an action in which palm of one's hand is raised & slapped against another person's similarly raised palm.
Origin: There are many stories about the origin of the term 'high five,' but the two most-documented incidences occurred in 1977, when Glenn Burke and Dusty Baker of the Los Angeles Dodgers high fived, and when Derek Smith and Wiley Brown of the Louisville Cardinals began to exchange high fives during the 1978-1979 college basketball season.
Example: "I gave him a high five after he won the race."

QUOTE BOX

You will face many defeats in life, but never let yourself be defeated.

Sudoku is a number-placing puzzle based on a 9x9 grid with several given numbers. The object is to place the numbers 1 to 9 in the empty squares so that each row, each column and each 3x3 box contains the same number only once. The difficulty level of the Concept is Sudoku increases from Monday to Sunday.

CRYPTOQUIP

The Cryptoquip is a substitution cipher in which one letter stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Single letters, short words and words using an apostrophe give you clues to locating vowels. Solution is by trial and error.
